

CSBAG BUDGET NEWS BRIEF

158th EDITION | 7th -13th March 2016

Advocating for a People Centered Budget that Dignifies Humanity

Celebrating the Women behind CSBAG's budget advocacy in Uganda #IWD16 ♀

What better way to celebrate International Women's Day than to reflect on the women who make a contribution to budget advocacy in Uganda? Please Join us to celebrate the women at CSBAG driven by different passions all geared towards creating a Uganda where all citizens (women and men, boys and girls) can benefit from equitable resource mobilization, allocation and utilization!

Happy Women's Day

Ms. Angella Nabwowe works with ISER. Vehemently supported the campaign for the inclusion of the Certificate of Gender and Equity in the Public Finance Management Act, 2015

Ms. Lydia Kobusinge works with CSBAG. Her drive for budget accountability at the grassroots level for especially women is unmatched.

Ms. Grace Alupo works as Head Policy Research and Campaigns at Wateraid Uganda. She is an active CSBAG member championing for better financing for increased access to improved Water, Hygiene and Sanitation.

Ms. Florence Tumuheirwe is a gender and community development activist working with FOWODE in Kabale district. Ms. Tumuheirwe is recognized for her contribution during our Agriculture Tax campaign. She collected over 1000 farmers' signatures and was the lead petitioner who submitted the 1 million farmers' petition to the Speaker of Parliament in 2014

Ms. Nelly Busigye works with SEATINI Uganda a Member of CSBAG. Ms Nelly is a member of the CSBAG Finance and Program Board Subcommittee and is strong on pushing for progressive and accountable taxation and trade policies among others.

Ms. Agnes Kirabo is an Executive Director of Food Rights Alliance. Agnes is driven by the passion to improve the farmers life most especially the woman farmer who provide over 80% of the labour in agriculture

Ms. Salima Namusoya Namusobya is the Executive Director at Initiative for Social and Economic Rights (ISER), an active member organization of CSBAG and a champion for financing for social and economic rights in Uganda. ISER in 2014 took government to Court over inadequate UPE Capitation Grant

Ms. Imelda Namagga is a Senior Program Officer at Uganda Debt Network and the Treasurer for CSBAG. Ms. Namagga is a very active CSBAG and is known for her relentless efforts for open budget systems and debt management in Uganda

Ms. Tinner Areeba Coordinates CSBAG work in Kibaale. Committed to promoting grassroots budget accountability. Ms. Areeba is known for mobilizing and organising communities in Kibaale district to reclaim a Health Center land which a former owner had taken away from Government.

Ms. Sheila Innocent is the Head of Finance at CSBAG. Ms Innocent's proficiency at work is what makes her stand out at CSBAG

Ms. Diana Tibesigwa She is a programs officer at DSU who is passionate sexual and reproductive health initiatives to ensure universal access to sexual and reproductive health and rights (SRHR), which is fundamental to improving health and fighting poverty.

Ms. Sophie Kyagulanyi work as the Program Manager at FOWODE, a member organization of CSBAG. She is a champion for equal resource sharing between women and men and is strong on increased financing for social development sectors majorly depended on by women e.g agriculture, health and others

Ms. Marilyn Kabalebe works as an Advocacy Officer at the Participatory Ecological Land Use Management (PELUM) a very active member of CSBAG. Passionate about increased investments in agriculture for especially smallholder farmers majorly women

Ms. Elliot Orizaarwa a CSBAG Board member and Executive Director at the Women and Girl Child Development Association (WEGCDA). Ms. Orizaarwa is a Gender and Development expert, gender budget trainer and very active in the CSBAG Social Development Thematic Working Group

Ms. Promise Winnie is a gender activist working with FOWODE. She is passionate about gender responsive budgeting and works to oversee the improved financing for reproductive health and the operationalization of the Certificate of Gender and Equity as enshrined in the PFMA, 2015

Ms. Asha Mwanga is the Executive Director Asha Razn Foundation and an active member of the CSBAG JLOS Thematic Working Group and she advocates for improved financing for equal access to justice for the marginalized especially the Women.

Ms. Jenina Ninsiima is a CSBAG field Officer in Kibaale districts. She works to promote i gender accountability in service delivery. With her in charge, CSBAG has recorded tremendous changes including increased staffing at health centers among other things

Ms. Doreen Uwimana is the Finance Assistant at CSBAG and is recognized for uprightness and commitment to work.

Ms. Evas Kanyesigye is CSBAG IT Assistant. Through her work Evas manages CSBAG IT and the online visibility of CSBAG

#IWD16

HAPPY WOMEN'S DAY
TO ALL OUR READERS

Ms. Carol Namagembe is the Programme Associate at CSBAG.

Happy to celebrate with you this years' Women's Day

